Did You Know:

If you run out of mouthwash you can make your own: Mix 1 tsp of baking soda in a glass of water. Swish, spit and rinse. This is an economical and easy mouthwash that neutralizes odors.

Did you know that the hand you write with affects your teeth? It can. Right-handed people, tend to chew food on their right side, while left-handed people tend to chew on their left side.

85% of the population can curl their tongue into a tube shape. Can you? (Did you just try it?)

6 is the magic number. Number of feet away from your toilet to store your toothbrush in order to avoid airborne particles from toilet flushing. Yuck!

Blessed are they who hold lively conversations with the helplessly mute, for they shall be called dentists.
